RATE HEARING ON IN OKLAHOMA CITY

Roads Want Increase in the Rates to Stand as Before.

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, May 26.—The advisability of extending the temporary increase in traffic rates granted by the state, last September, 1st by the state corporation commission, was questioned by Campbell Russell, chairman of the commission, in a statement made today at the opening of hearings on application of the roads for a continuance of the increased rates.
Russell's statement was made before admission of testimony and was declared to be the opinion of the commission.
The state order granting the increase expires June 1. It affected freight rates, passenger and Pullman rates and was granted to conform with an increase allowed by the interstate commerce commission. Representatives of 28 railroads were present when the hearing opened.
J. K. Moore, rate expert of the commission, was called to the stand to present the figures referred to by the chairman. In his opening statement he declared the fifty-seven million dollars revenue of the roads in the state in 1919 accrued from four billion ton miles handled by one hundred ninety six million loaded car miles of traffic. Twenty-eight percent of the revenue, he asserted, was derived from passenger traffic and 72 percent from freight. Of the total revenue in the state 53.7 percent, Moore declared, was from intra-state traffic.

Fake Bomb Found on Porch of Grocery This Morning

What at first was believed to be a dynamite bomb was found this morning on the porch of S. S. Holcomb's grocery store in the outskirts of Ada. The fuse was partly burned out and the affair had every appearance of an infernal machine that had been lighted but had failed to explode.
The fake machine was handed over to the sheriff and was opened by Mr. Duncan. It consisted of a piece of gas pipe 20 inches in length and 1 1/2 inches in diameter. The ends of the pipe had been plugged with cement and it contained a regular dynamite fuse partly burned out. Whether the fuse was lighted when the bomb was left on the porch of the grocery or whether it had been burned before it was placed in the pipe is not known.
Mr. Holcomb is a highly respected citizen of Ada and operates a grocery on the Allen road at the northeast edge of Ada. Just what the motive of the one who placed the machine on the grocery porch was cannot be determined by the officers.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The Washington-New York air mail route will be abandoned after May 31, Postmaster General Hays announced today. DUBLIN CUSTOM HOUSE IN RUINS

Mob Burns Historic Building in Chief City of Ireland.

(By the Associated Press)
DUBLIN, May 26.—Smoking ruins marked today the site of the historic custom house of Dublin, which was burned yesterday by a raiding party of civilians. During the night sullen bursts of flame in the twisted chaos of stone and steel lighted the rain swept scene about which British armlet forces kept vigilant guard.
Fifty men taken by crown forces in and about the old building spent the night in various prisons in the city and the bodies of upwards of a dozens persons killed during the struggle reposed in morgues. It was believed that some of the raiders perished in the fire.
The custom house was completed in 1791 and was one of the chief architectural ornaments of the city. Troops were quartered in Liberty Hall, near by during the night and the approaches to the custom house were cut off by barb wire entanglements.

NIX ON MEDDLING IN FOREIGN MUDDLES!

ADA REAL ESTATE MARKET IS GOOD

Property Changing Hands Rapidly; Few Business Houses Are Selling.

That Ada homes are still in great demand and Ada real estate is still enjoying a good market is the opinion of several of Ada's real estate dealers. Although no large recent deals are reported, many residence and lot sales have been made.
The real estate dealers stated that before the oil strike property was little in demand, but that it immediately soared as soon as the news of the strike spread. It now has settled to a more steady basis.
Vacant lots in good locations are being sold rapidly, the buyers intending to build homes in nearly every instance, and residences are also selling to people who want permanent homes. Very little buying for speculation is reported.
Out-of-town buyers are coming every day and many are moving their families to this city. The demand for good modern homes is still large and the dealers are confident that it will continue so. Business property is not changing hands fast and little of it is listed for sale.
The prices asked by the property owners is reasonable and this is one of the great causes for its quick sale, the real estate men believe. Prices being paid now for city property are not so large as were paid during the heat of the oil excitement, and much of the property that was taken off the market at that time has again been placed for sale.
All dealers seen were of the opinion that a better market is near.

JAIL DELIVERY AT TULSA TODAY

Saw Bars and Escape Down Hand Made Rope Ladder.
(By the Associated Press)
TULSA, May 26.—Twelve prisoners escaped from the county jail at 2:30 this morning, sawing their way through seven heavy iron bars and sliding down a rope ladder, while the night jailer sat within 20 yards of them. Among them were some of the worst criminals in the county, officials said.
Three prisoners were recaptured by the police within 2 hours after their escape.
Sheriff McCullough, who was in Tulsa when the delivery took place, began early today to make a search for the other nine escaped prisoners, who include burglar suspects.
Walter Large, head jailer, said that the fugitives had sawed their way through their cell door then through the doors of a corridor gate and finally through the one inch steel bars of the windows. With a rope made of knotted blankets they let themselves to the ground.

ASHER COMING FOR GAME HERE SUNDAY

Lefty Williams Is Slated to Pitch—Manager Sparks Wants Big Crowd.

The next team to try their luck against Lefty Williams and the Ada ball club is the fast Asher club who have been playing ball for the past two months and have only lost two games.
It is quite noticeable that a great many of our last year's fans have not started to come out to the games and it is hoped that they will make a start this Sunday as the club needs their support. The question is often asked, "Are we going to have a ball game Sunday?" and manager Sparks advises that unless the weather prevents we will have a game every Sunday except one in August when the club will play one game at Chandler in order to get them down here for a series of games. On Sunday June 5th the boys will play one of the best semi-professional clubs in the state, Crane Company of Oklahoma City, who are topping the City League of Oklahoma City. On June 12th they will play the Daily Oklahoma team who have been playing teams from all over the state and winning a majority of their games. To get a line on both of these Oklahoma City clubs you will only have to look up their record in the Daily Oklahoman.
Why not make a start next Sunday and give the boys your much needed support.

Collections Run Large in the Office of Court Clerk

Since the first day of January last 230 cases have been filed in the district court of Pontotoc county, according to the records in the office of the court clerk, Luther Franklin. Since the first of March the court clerk's office has collected in fees a total of $2257.66.
March was the banner month for the collection of fees in the office of the court clerk. During that month the collections registered a total of $1480.66. The collections for the month of April were $777.00. The oil activity of the county has vastly increased the volume of business in the court clerk's office and consequently increased the amount of fees collected. Several other county offices have had their volume of work increased by oil developments.

FIRST REGULAR ASSEMBLY TODAY

Ministers Make Announcements; Enrollment Grows and Work Begins.

For the first time this term the Normal students and faculty members assembled in the school auditorium this morning at the regular chapel hour to conduct the chapel exercises, make opening announcements, and bring up other matters of importance to the student body as a whole.
At this time four of Ada's ministers were present, who made announcements concerning their respective churches for Sundays of the summer. Invitations were extended to both faculty and students to attend all services.

The ministers present were Rev. C. C. Morris of the First Baptist church, Rev. R. C. Taylor of the First Methodist church, Rev. H. M. Woods of the First Christian church and Dr. N. P. Patterson of the Presbyterian church.

Dr. Linschied presided at the assembly and after the song service under the direction of Miss Emma Keller and the prayer by Rev. Morris, he made the announcements. It was at this time that Miss Alschier, instructor of the Red Cross classes, was introduced and given an opportunity to speak to the student body, the girls especially.

Among the announcements made were those concerning "Hello Week," junior class play and Y. W. C. A. activities. The students were requested to keep off the campus after 10 o'clock. Several other minor announcements were made that interest the students.

The Y. W. C. A. will hold open house in the reception room Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock for the purpose of getting acquainted, making the visiting students feel more welcome and arouse interest in the Y. W. work. A call meeting was held for this purpose today following the chapel exercises.

The students and faculty are preparing to conduct a "Hello Week" program beginning Monday and for the entire week all students and faculty will recognize each other by saying hello. This is another plan that has been adopted by the management of the school for the purpose of bringing the students and faculty nearer together.

It was announced today by Dr. Linschied that the driveway around the Normal school would be closed after 10 o'clock each evening and that all students who were caught loitering on the campus after this time by the night watchman would be reckoned with.

Steadily increasing, the enrollment has now grown until it is nearing the 1000 mark. Early this morning it had swelled to 925 and at the rate the students were enrolling it is believed that by Saturday the goal will have been reached.
All classes have held their first meetings, names have been added to the teacher's lists, students have been placed and the first assignments are made. In less than three days time the host of more than 900 students have been organized and order now prevails. The faculty members are pleased with the outlook for the summer term and confident that it will be a great success.

THE HEAD THAT WEARS A CROWN

Less than three months after his inauguration President Harding is the object of political attacks that recall the savage onslaughts on Mr. Wilson during the last two years of the latter's administration. It was natural to expect much criticism of the new president (such is a favorite pastime of American citizens) but it is strange to note that most of the criticism directed towards the president comes from his own party. As a general rule the democrats of the country are yet speaking of the president in terms of respect.

The fly in the presidential ointment is the old, aggravating, and nauseating matter of patronage. The evil that wrecked the Garfield administration and sent Garfield to his grave, the evil that has distracted every president since the spoils system was first introduced into politics, is the evil that now stalks the man in the White House and opens a battery of small bore political guns in his general direction. In purely official matters the president is performing well, but it is impossible to make only one job satisfy the office lust of several dozen job hunters and this fact explains the ire of those who hunger for the loaves and fishes.

In a recent issue of the Tulsa World appears an editorial that breathes out much threatening and slaughter against the president howbeit the article attacks the master thru his servant, Attorney General Daugherty. The World is displeased with the federal appointments recently made in Oklahoma and indignantly denounces the powers that be. It is interesting to note that the severest critic of Mr. Wilson thus early becomes the severest critic of Mr. Harding's political manager and adviser.

Mr. Harding may possibly never make a successful president. But he undoubtedly deserves the chance to make a good president. He deserves the hearty support of every American citizen. It is more than a blunder—it is a positive crime—to let a center rush for the political pie counter endanger the success of a national administration. It is humiliating that questions involving the peace and happiness of a hundred million are neglected while a horde of politicians scramble for places on the national payroll.

SO THAT'S THE REMEDY

The oracle hath spoken. Comes now the president of all the states and pompously informs a long-suffering public that the quickest cure for our many ills is to go to work instanter. It has required some months to complete the diagnosis, but it is now complete and the prescription is issued to the world.

Now you have it. If you are working day and night to make ends meet and do not know where your next penny is to come from you can solve your problem by accepting the presidential dictum. All you have to do is to go to work.

If you have been playing a city breadline for weary weeks gone by and wearing your soles to ribbons in a fruitless quest for work, quit worrying. Go to work.

If your business has gone limbo and war taxes have eaten up your substance, forget your grief and stop complaining. Go to work.

If your barnyard is filled with cotton bales for which the world affords no market and your last year's taxes remain unpaid, the day of your deliverance is here. Go to work.

If your factory doors are closed and you are facing a season of unemployment, grasp the remedy offered by the man from Marion. Go to work.

Thus speaketh the oracle. The stale platitudes of the last campaign have become vibrant. The riddles of the front porch are explained. The chosen trumpet that was to call a valley of dry bones to life and health and strength has sounded its challenge. "Back to normalcy" means "go to work."

"WHERE POPPIES BLOW."

Next Saturday will be "poppy day" in Ada. The local post of the American Legion has entered the nation-wide campaign for funds to alleviate the old-world suffering. It has secured a large number of poppies and will sell these poppies on the streets next Saturday. The work of selling will be done by the girls of the Normal.

Will you buy a poppy Saturday? It will cost you only ten cents. Three years ago when our legions were marching thru fire towards the Rhine the poppy was almost sacred to us. It suggested lonely graves along the shell torn roads of Flanders and Picardy. The poppy still speaks the language of a matchless sacrifice. On this occasion it will speak of a hungering population. Behind that suffering is the sweep of armies. Behind it all is the sacrifice of Cavalry. If you wear a poppy Saturday, you will show your kinship to the heroes of the republic and your respect for the Savior of mankind.

GO TO THEATRE

McSwain

It is fair to assume that you, with the others of our large clientele, love novelty in motion picture presentation. This being conceded, we beg to inform you that you will be well repaid by visiting this theatre today when William S. Hart's latest photoplay, "The Testing Block," a romantic story of the gold fever days in California will be shown.

Mr. Hart is essentially a man's man in all of his pictures, but in this remarkable offering he is a veritable superman. As a bandit chief who is reformed through love for a wandering violinist, Nelly Gray, and whom he wins after a terrific battle with seven of his followers, he has provided the screen with a character that will live long in the memory of those who see this admirable picture.

In addition to playing the stellar role, Mr. Hart wrote the story. Every scene has a thrill of its own and it is in every respect the best Hart production thus far made. Eva Novak, a new Paramount debutante, is the leading woman and the cast is in every way of the highest class. Photographically, the picture is delightful and if you miss it, you will miss a screen offering that is distinctly worth while.

It is also feature day in the vaudeville weekly bill, presenting "Old Kentucky."

A WALL STREET BOMB SUSPECT IS IDENTIFIED

Carpentier, in U. S. for Big Bout, Will Train Differently Than Jack

By NORMAN E. BROWN

The first round of the preliminaries to the Carpentier-Dempsey engagement July 2 has already been staged—with Carpentier's manager leading with a straight oratorical jab to the face without a return.

Said wallop occurred on the arrival of Jacques and his training stable in New York to begin training at Hanhasset for the big melee.

When asked if Carpentier would train in secret or in public, Manager Deschamps replied:

"In secret. We are not here to get the gate receipts from the workouts. We are after Dempsey's title."

Which is considerable dig at Manager Kearns, who has camped his charge at the nation's playground, Atlantic City, where he can draw a big gate every day Dempsey works out.

Aside from the fact that Carpentier will eliminate the public receptions at his workouts he will introduce several other novel ideas.

First of all he brought along a combination prize fighter and cook—the only one of his kind in captivity. The gent is Battling Marcot. Marcot will have complete charge of Carpentier's eating and between meals will climb into the ring and attempt to swat his own make of biscuits as they rest in George's tummy.

Next, Carpentier has brought a "Jack Dempsey" along with him to practice on. He is Paul Journee, chief sparring partner. Journee is a big muscular, speedy gent of Dempsey's general size and build. Journee will be coached to fight a la Dempsey in his workouts with Carpentier.

And then Carpentier will deviate further and further from the usual training camp stuff by spending very little time in ring togs.

Georges is now at 175 pounds, according to Deschamps. He is in practically perfect shape physically now. He doesn't have to train hard to get "down fine." What he must do is to keep in perfect trim and box enough to time his punches perfectly and keep in hitting trim.

In other words, there will be no training grind for Georges. He will spend much of his time walking, resting about the camp or doing light exercising. Only a few minutes a day will be devoted to slugging Journee, Marcot and other and it is in every respect the best Hart production thus far made. Eva Novak, a new Paramount debutante, is the leading woman and the cast is in every way of the highest class. A WALL STREET BOMB SUSPECT IS IDENTIFIED

(By the Associated Press)

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 26.—Giuseppe De Filipis, charged with complicity in the Wall Street explosion, was formally identified today before the United States commissioner Hendrickson, as one of the three men seen standing beside the death wagon immediately before the blast. Identification was made by Thomas J. Smith, New York insurance inspector. Commissioner Hendrickson held the defendant for action by the New York authorities, but said he would order the prisoner released unless application for extradition was made within 30 days.

DR. LINSCHIED IS MUCH IN DEMAND

DR. A. Linschied will leave this afternoon for Roff where he will deliver the commencement address for the Roff high school. He will go from there to Marietta where he will deliver the commencement address for that school Friday evening. He has received invitations from schools over the state to deliver the class addresses but Marietta and Checotah were the only two he accepted out of this district. This was done because of friendship with the management of the two schools named.

SENATE WILL PROBE THE MINE DISORDERS

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Only minor amendments to be considered when the senate resumed debate today on naval appropriation bill, as the result of adoption yesterday by unanimous vote of the proposal of Senator Borah, republican of Idaho, that the president be requested to call a naval disarmament conference between the United States, Great Britain and Japan. A final vote was looked for possibly late today.

Who's Who at the Normal

Rainbow's End.
There's a tiny pool a-waiting,
There are fish that love to bite—
And the water keeps a-glittering in the Sun—
And I hear it's lure a-calling—
I can see it noon and night—
And I wonder will this work be ever done?

Will the time be ever coming
When I'll wander back again
On the pathway to the fishing pool of yore.
When it never really matters
If it's sunshine or it's rain
And I'll just be fishing—fishing —evermore!

There's a wondrous road that travels
Through the forest of the past
And sometimes when the night
wind's blowing cool—
In fancy I am tramping
And I find again at last
That waiting, gleaming, boyhood fishing pool!

Vacant Lot Goes

(By the Associated Press)

TULSA, Okla., May 26.—The last vacant lot on Main street for a stretch of 10 blocks will be gone and Tulsa will no longer have a playground in the heart of the business district when Dan Hunt, local merchant, carries out a plan announced this week to build a six-story department store building at Fourth and Main streets.

Last Christmas several thousand Tulsa children gathered round the big municipal Christmas tree erected on this lot and saw Santa Claus distribute the presents. But by next Christmas the six-story building will be practically completed, and the kiddies will have to go elsewhere for their municipal Christmas tree.

During the war this lot was the scene of many a patriotic meeting and more since then, the owner having allowed the National Guard, Y.
W. C. A., St. Johns hospital and other similar organizations to use the lot for publicity purposes.

TULSA BOYS AT PRESENT

(By the Associated Press)

TULSA, Okla., May 27.—The Tulsa boy who does not have a kite these days is a back number. Two or three weeks ago marbles gave place to kites in the slow but sure revolution in the cycle of games, and kites became the craze.

The street that does not have a marooned kite hanging on a telephone or electric light pole or tree is an exception. These wrecks are mute witnesses of the heartaches their young owners felt when disaster overtook the treasured flyer.

Friday afternoon, May 27, the fifth grade boys in the public schools will hold the first annual kite tournament on Lee field.
Around 200 entries have been made,
which will test the flying qualities of the kites the boys are now making in their toy work under the direction of Miss Edna Remington, toy department instructor.

The events in which entries have been made include the highest flyer, the strongest puller, the smallest box kite, the smallest plain kite, the most artistic, the best decorated, and a 50-yard event in which the boys will let out and wind in 50 yards of string. Points will be given to the winners in the various events.

The College Atmosphere

With the appearance on the streets of Ada of nearly a thousand young men and women—mostly young women—students and teachers, educated and seeking education, refined and for the most part elegantly groomed and neat appearing, Ada has taken on the appearance of the real college town.

Already the educational atmosphere can be felt here, and it is believed by many that with the superb school facilities of the municipality, and the location here of the East Central State Normal, a nucleus has been established that cannot help but draw other educational institutions and finally make Ada an educational center second to none in the entire southwest.

That a college and educational center will spring up somewhere in this part of the state is almost certain, and when the natural advantages of Ada are taken into consideration it is hardly possible to believe that this will not be the place.

Did it ever occur to you that Ada has more to offer in this direction than any other point within a radius of a hundred miles in each direction? If it did not, think for a moment of the question of health. The first consideration in the establishment of institutions where thousands of young people are assembled together, is that of health. Ada has every advantage to offer in that direction. The city is not only healthfully located, but it has the best and purest water supply in the whole state, an item that means good health in itself.

The next consideration is the moral atmosphere of the community. What more could be desired in that respect than is to be found in Ada? Noted as a town of churches, morality and high toned citizenship, it has always stood at the top, until at the present time crime is almost an unknown quantity in the city.

The railroad facilities are all that could be desired. The city is easily accessible from all points and students living in any part of the state, or adjoining states, would have no difficulty and suffer no loss of time in making the trips to and from the various schools that might be located here.

An unlimited supply of natural gas is an inducement as important to schools as to industrial enterprises. A wonderful agricultural community naturally makes living expenses reasonable. In fact, if there is anything needed for the establishment of an educational center that Ada cannot supply it has not yet been called to our attention.

That many denominational schools will spring up in a new state like ours goes without saying, and as the state grows older colleges for the arts, sciences and professions will come and will seek out the locations offering the best in the lines just enumerated.

The wonderful growth and progress of the Normal here, and the reputation which Ada has already gained as an ideal place to attend school or college, would lead one to believe that our chances to become a great educational center are more than ordinary.

Let us keep our opportunities in mind and work to this end. It is not an impossible task nor a fantastic dream. It could be made a reality, and just think what a wonderful achievement it would be and what it would mean to the future.

WEATHER BUREAU CHIEF GETS IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT JOB

(By the Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, May 26.—John P. Slaughter, chief of the weather bureau here, has been elected to head the first organization of the United States Department of Agriculture clubs to be organized in the state. At a meeting held here last week 70 employees of the department in Oklahoma City held a luncheon and perfected organization, elected officers and by-laws and set a date for the monthly get-together.

Organization here is expected to be followed by other cities and districts in the states having an unusually large number of agriculture employees. The object of the clubs is to promote a knowledge of and a familiarity with the aims and activities of the various bureaus represented in Oklahoma among the department of agriculture employees.

Membership in the club is confined to all United States agricultural employees, with the provision that there shall be no dues and all expenses arising to be met by special assessment. Other objects of the clubs are to enable the employees to meet prominent department workers, become acquainted with the general and special work, promote a spirit of fellowship among the field forces and disseminate information concerning the activities of the department in general.

Dr. L. J. Allen, bureau of animal husbandry, was elected vice-president of the club here, and Miss Miriam Mathews, bureau of markets secretary.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. T. McAnnally happened to a dangerous accident Tuesday evening of this week when he was bitten by a copperhead snake, considered one of the most poisonous snakes in this country. He was rushed to the hospital where proper treatment was administered. He is much better at this time.

Two well-known women leaders of the Sinn Fein were recently chosen for membership in the southern parliament of Ireland, a

In The Oil Fields

New Well to Start

Val Mullen, prominent oil operator of Ardmore, is getting ready to begin drilling in a few days. He has not publicly announced the exact location, but it will not be far from the Carter-Lowry-Laselle well in section 32-5-5. Mr. Mullen is in Ardmore now, but is expected to return in a few days with definite announcements and arrangements.

Big Things Brewing

While operations are not extensive in any of the four oil fields in the county at this time, indications are, so the oil men say, that big things are to break before long. At least a dozen wells are planned for the northwest territory. Signs of renewed activity in the Steedman field are evident. That new locations are to be made there is in the air, though nothing definite could be learned.

Francis and Allen

New wells are to be drilled in the Francis field within a short time, and the Allen field continues to pour forth liquid gold.

WIFE TAKES HUSBANDS ADVICE

And Is Made Well Again by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Springfield, Mass.—"The doctor told my husband that I had to have an operation, otherwise I would be a sickly woman and could not have any more children on account of my weakened condition. I refused to have the operation. My husband asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see if it would not help me. For the first four months I could do but little work, had to lie down most of the time, was nervous and could eat hardly anything, but my husband was always reminding me to take the Vegetable Compound, which I did. Of my eight children this last one was the easiest birth of all and I am thankful for your Vegetable Compound. I recommend it to my friends when I hear them complaining about their ills."—Mrs. M. NATALE, 72 Fremont St., Springfield, Mass. Sick, ailing women make unhappy homes, and after reading Mrs. Natale's letter one can imagine how this home was transformed by her restoration to health. Every woman who suffers from such ailments should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. It is surely worth while.

OKLAHOMA CITY PEOPLE WANT GAS LINE EXTENSION

(Small preliminary report)
OKLAHOMA CITY, May 25.—Following suits filed by Oklahoma City citizens against the Oklahoma Gas and Electric Company for gas line extensions and the application of H. F. Wilcox of Okmulgee for permission to install a vacuum system on Section 24-5-6 Township 15, the state corporation commission tomorrow is scheduled to hear the application of railroads in the state for a permanent order making effective existing freight rates. The application, filed by the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad, et al, seeks to make permanent commissioner's order 1781, which last fall granted for a period of six months, increases in intrastate freight rates as allowed by the federal board. At the time of issuing the order the commission reserved the right to repeal its order after the time of expiration.

Shippers and railroads alike have given advanced notice of being prepared with charts and exhibits purporting to show that the order should be remanded, or continued in force. As the temporary order becomes ineffective after June 1, it has been said by commissioners that the hearing and filing of order would be made within or by the time the present order becomes inoperative.

One member of the commission intimated that inasmuch as recent action by the national board would tend to return railway wages to normalcy and the general downward trend of costs of all commodities, it was possible that the order would not be renewed. To offset this a representative of the railroads declared he was prepared to show that the roads were operating without profit despite slumps in maintenance costs.

The only case scheduled for hearing Friday is that of P. H. Nolan versus the Anheuser-Busch Brewing association, alleging respondents failed and refused to file returns as required by law.

Pure Butter Is Rich in Those Life-Giving Vitamines

Vitamines—the vigor-building, health-producing factor in food—are absolutely essential to a wholesome diet. Butter is one of the richest sources of vitamins. Substitutes for butter contain none of these mysterious but necessary elements. Use real butter because of its remarkable food value.

And besides, everybody loves the taste of good butter—sweet flavored butter like Climax. It is churned from carefully selected pasteurized cream, shipped fresh the day after it's made—triple wrapped to protect its flavor. Insist on Climax.

Bank Robbers Are Warned in Kansas

(By the Associated Press.)

TOPEKA, Kan., April 4.—If bank robbers are accustomed to exercising foresight as to possible capture the Kansas Bankers' association is anxious that they read up on laws and offers of reward in Kansas designed to discourage their activities in this state. The association has a standing reward of $5,000 for the capture of bank robbers and the 1921 Kansas legislature doubled the penalty for bank robbery, making it from ten to fifty years imprisonment. The law applies to attempts as well as "successful" robberies.

Peace officers say that since the bankers' association made its standing offer of reward, more than a year ago, the number of bank robberies has not fallen off perceptibly. Within a week after the new ten to fifty year penalty became effective, four bank robbers were captured, two in Pratt county, and two near Topeka. The former pair, one of whom was identified as a notorious escaped convict, were sentenced to thirty years imprisonment "at hard labor." They were sent to the prison coal mines upon reaching the state penitentiary. The latter pair confessed to holding up a bank at St. Marys, Kan., but they have not yet been tried.

French War Orphans to Pay Tribute to American Hero Dead on Memorial Day

Services at the graves of the American soldiers who sleep beneath the poppies of Flanders Field.

Memorial Day will find hundreds of French children, self appointed guardians of the graves of American soldiers dead in France, placing wreaths and flowers upon the mounds marked by white crosses, the final resting places of the thousands who gave their lives for world freedom. Americans will pay their tribute to these fallen warriors by wearing the official memorial flower, the poppy of Flanders Field, that has been immortalized in verse and prose. The "Wear a Poppy" Movement is sponsored by the American-Franco Children's League, a volunteer organization of patriotic and philanthropic men and women of both nations. It has been endorsed by the National Information Bureau, in this country, and by President Millerand of France. The poppy that will be worn in America is a replica in silk of the blossoms that have sprung up over the graves of Americans in France. Most of the poppies have been made by French war orphans. The funds that are obtained through the sale of the flowers will go to the American-Franco Children's League for relief work among the children of the war-torn districts, the children who, even though in poverty, have kept fresh the flowers on the graves of their heroes, the American soldiers.

EXPORTATION IS URGED AS NORMALCY PANACEA

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 26.—The administration policy of promoting exportation as a means toward restoration of normal business conditions was discussed at a White House dinner last night attended by secretaries Mellon and Hoover, J. P. Morgan, Paul Warburg, and a number of other prominent financiers. President Harding was said to have talked over the whole subject with his guests.

The dinner was quietly arranged and no word of it was made public until today.

It was understood that while no hard and fast program was decided upon that the discussion served to cement the belief of administration officials that one of the most remedial measures available would be active co-operation between the government and business men for revival of export trade.

It was also indicated that the administration policy would turn toward some source of aid to the financial situation in Europe as a part of the effort for general work stability.

The dinner is expected to have an echo in numerous conferences in the near future between the president and other financial leaders. President Harding is said to have laid before his guests an offer to do everything practicable to co-operate for relief of economic conditions, while the bankers are said to have replied with expressions of willingness to work in close conjunction with the administration.

In the Congressional Record you miss half the humor. You can't hear the naive statesman's quaint pronunciation.

CHANGE IN FARM COUNTRY SHOWN

Oklahoma Wheat Acreage Rapidly Increases; Other Crops Become Popular.

(By the Associated Press)
CHICAGO, May 26.—The face of agriculture in the middle and south west, the chief farming section of the country, has undergone some remarkable changes in the past ten years. It is shown by reports from state agricultural authorities gathered here.

The decade is indicated as one of the most momentous that have passed over American agriculture. Improved methods of farming are given credit for much of the transformation.

In some states production of their old time crops has fallen off as attention focussed elsewhere. Meantime production per acre has increased while other states, by advancing their own acreage have helped to wipe out a slack that might otherwise have resulted. New crops have sprung to the fore here and there. In several states the character of farming has almost been made over.

Texas has forged to the front until its agricultural chiefs claim more wheat grown there than in some other states where wheat is well nigh the principal crop. They declare their grape fruit and oranges, grown in the Rio Grande Valley, equal to the best.

In wheat, Kansas, which holds the lead, has increased its acreage nearly 100 percent in the last ten years. The increase is 4,196,000 acres. Oklahoma which last year stood fourth in wheat production, meantime increased its planting by 1,334,000 acres. Iowa, the banner corn state, enlarged its wheat crop 58 percent.

On the other hand Minnesota which stood second in spring wheat last year cut its wheat production 26 percent in the ten years, while North Dakota, which stood first in Spring wheat in 1920, also recorded a reduction to make way for other crops.

While Kansas was nearly doubling its wheat acreage, it dropped 3,363,000 acres from its corn planting. Oklahoma, which likewise saw greater advantages for itself in wheat, cut its corn acreage by 2,582,000. Nebraska, which stood third in corn production last year, slightly reduced its acreage in the decade, and Missouri, which stood fourth, cut off 1,285,000 acres.

Meantime Iowa was enlarging its corn production 12 percent. Minnesota jumped its corn yield 90 percent. South Dakota made one of its chief advances in corn production. Wisconsin is reported changing in the decade from a grain growing state to a leading dairy state. Michigan made notable strides in the livestock industry as did Iowa, South Dakota, Indiana and other states.

Many farmers have been enabled to go on a basis of 12 month's production instead of only through the growing season, it is reported for instance from South Dakota, where diversified farming as in Arkansas and elsewhere has made great developments in ten years.

CONGRESSMEN FAVOR FILIPINO INDEPENDENCE

Congressman Edward J. King of Illinois.

Washington.—"The appointed hour is here; let the Philippines be free." This was the keynote of a speech by Congressman Edward J. King of Illinois, (Republican) in which he reviewed the American occupation of the islands from the first day to the present time. He declared that the United States was honor bound to grant independence without further delay.

Congressman King is one of an increasing number of Republicans in the House who are urging quick action on Philippine independence. Mr. King is the author of a bill which provides that within one year the Philippine government, under presidential proclamation, may assemble a convention and frame a constitution.

After the constitution is ratified by the Filipino people the President may recognize the Philippine islands as "a separate and self-governing nation." The transfer of authority is to be completed within one year. Provision is made for safeguarding American investments in the Philippines and for the providing of coaling stations and submarine bases in the islands by the United States.

Word from the Philippines is that the people expect early independence and will be sorely disappointed if they do not get it.

"No nation has the right," said Congressman King "to hold another people in peonage, even though it may be argued by the professoriate that the condition is simply one of tutelage."

"A little more observance of the golden rule in national and international affairs would soon dispel that desire for exploitation, the fiercest foe of freedom in the world today."

"When we went to the Philippines we declared before the whole world that we were not actuated by any selfish desire of conquest or territorial aggrandizement, but solely by humanitarian impulses."

Congressman King called attention to the fact that Filipinos are now raising funds to erect a monument to Admiral Dewey, which he said was indirectly a tribute to the American people as well as to Dewey. He recalled the cable that Dewey had sent to President McKinley, which was as follows:

"In my opinion these people (Filipinos) are superior in intelligence and more capable of self government than the natives of Cuba, and I am familiar with both."

Congressman King then recited the preamble to the Jones law, passed August 29, 1916, and declared it was a definite pledge of independence. The preamble stated "it is as it has always been the purpose of the people of the United States to withdraw their sovereignty over the Philippine Islands and to recognize their independence as soon as a stable government can be established therein."

Congressman King stated there was no question but that the Filipinos had established the specified stable government and, therefore, it is the solemn duty of the United States to grant the promised independence.

ASKS INDEPENDENCE FOR PHILIPPINES

Francis Burton Harrison

Manila.—Francis Burton Harrison, former governor general of the Philippine Islands, offered to tender his resignation eighteen months ago upon condition that the Secretary of War recommend to President Wilson that a Filipino be appointed his successor. He made the offer while in Washington in 1919.

Discussing Philippine independence, the governor general said:

"I can see in the future a very beautiful vision. When the flag of the Philippine republic shall be hoisted, when the Stars and Stripes will come floating down to the strains of 'The Star Spangled Banner'—that flag, Old Glory, so rich in happy and honorable achievements, will be made doubly dear because it will mean that the United States will have kept its word to the people of the Philippine Islands."

School of Journalism in Philippines
Manila.—A school of journalism, the first in the Far East, has been established at the University of the Philippines, in Manila.

Admission to the School of Journalism is limited to third and fourth year students who have shown marked ability in the use of English. The course is open to both men and women. A class of about 50 registered at the opening of the journalistic course.

She stands in stiff riding boots on slippery pigskin.

ARROW GOLF IS POPULAR WITH COLLEGE STUDENTS

DURHAM, N. H., May 25.—Arrow golf, a new game, is the sport of the day at New Hampshire College. It is played with bow and arrow instead of club and ball and targets of straw sacks are used to mark what in golf would be holes. The faculty have taken to it in a body and play daily over a nine target course. Undergraduates also have adopted the game.

Over the hills and through woodlots in the vicinity of the college the arrows are sped without need to consider ground conditions that would be hazards in real golf. Yet the game has qualities that make it highly competitive, with factors of strength and skill involved to a degree that maintains interest.

Arrow golf was invented in Durham by Professor W. C. O'Kane and has been developed by him and a group of other faculty members into the game which can be enjoyed on any farm or in the vacant lot of suburbs.

The course at Durham has nine "holes," or targets. These consist of sacks stuffed with straw, placed on poles, the bottom of the sack being five or six inches above the ground. The distances between the targets are from 200 to 600 yards. The average player can make a drive of 200 yards easily. The game as in golf, requires that the circuit be made in the least number of "strokes." Some of the targets of the present course are possible one-shot plays, as there are possible one-holes in golf, though the probability that they will be achieved in one shot is remote.

The arrow golf player requires little equipment. Most of the players carry one bow, two or three arrows in a home-made quiver, and a guard for the left wrist necessary because the string strikes down on the wrist with great force. The player also wears a glove on the hand which he pulls the bowstring, or at least three fingers of a glove to cover the finger tips used.

Arrow golf has one great advantage over ordinary golf besides the ease with which a course may be arranged. It can be played in winter as well as in summer and has been played here over deep snow drifts on snowshoes in the face of blizzards. The arrows stand up in the drifts distinctly and even

AMMUNITION FROM AMERICA IN DUBLIN

(By the Associated Press)
LONDON, May 26.—American ammunition totaling 16,388 pounds has been captured in the Dublin district since March 26, last, Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, stated in the house of commons today.

The chief secretary made this statement in reply to Colonel Archer Shee, unionist member for Finsbury who asked him whether ammunition of American manufacturers had recently been captured in raids on an ey appropriation bill, carrying two

Colonel Archer Shee also asked whether in view of the fact that large sums of money had been raised in the United States for the support of the campaign "of assassination and anarchy in Ireland," strong representation would be made to the United States government.

Another member wanted to know how so much ammunition could come to Ireland. The chief secretary said he noted the importance of the supplementary questions and would confer with the foreign secretary regarding them.

THE lowly and uncultured Tartars—when books fell into their possession—ate them to acquire the knowledge contained therein. They doubtless suffered indigestion. At least, they weren't overlooking any bets.

There are mistakes both of commission and omission. Better, by far, to be satisfied that you have done your best and endure indigestion, than overlook real opportunities and feel the pangs of unavailing regret.

The advertisements you will find in this newspaper are business mines of opportunity. They tell you of values you might never know, if they were not there to guide you.

Do you read—and digest—this advertising? Figuratively speaking, some folks "eat it up." They are the wise shoppers—the economical buyers—the ones who are strictly up to date on the opportunities for saving money or spending it most judiciously.

Read the advertisements. Read them to know what's what in the shopping district. Read them to save steps—to save money—to save disappointments. Read them because they place before your eyes a moving panorama of business progress. Read them to keep yourself informed.

Read them regularly—it pays
